EXPERIENCE

DocuSign

Chicago, IL · Sep 2019—Present

—Product Designer

Working in one of DocuSign’s Agreement Cloud priorities: the automation of agreement generation and negotiation prior to signature, for SMB and enterprise levels, delivering first-class application experiences.

SAP

San Francisco, CA · Feb 2017—Oct 2018

—Product Designer

As part of Dabra.ai, redesigned the web application based on user research (improved information architecture, on-boarding flow, product website, and branding). Worked closely with front-end developers, heavy users, and the Israel-based team.

—UX/UI Designer

Selected member of Silicon Valley Next Talent Program. As part of a rotation with SAP Customer Experience Labs, designed MVPs for three product demos for the SAP CX Live conference in Barcelona.

—UX/UI Design Intern

Part of the SAP Internship Experience program. As part of Build.me, designed the interaction and flow for features in the UI composer. Designed multiple marketing-related materials through videography and web design.

San José State University

San José, CA · Aug 2016–Dec 2017

—Graphic Designer

Directed a 4-person design team in the marketing production for the Hammer Theatre Center and the College of Humanities and the Arts.

Freelance

Costa Rica, 2014—2015

—Brand Designer

Developed branding, graphic design and marketing projects for clients in Costa Rica, Brazil, Peru, and Italy, in sectors such as retail, education, and NGOs.
